

On 11 and 12 June 2018, the European Commission will host the ADR Assembly 2018. It will provide a forum to exchange best practice, network and discuss questions around the effective provision of alternative and online dispute resolution.

The event will include keynote addresses, plenary sessions, workshops, a cocktail dinner and a lunch. The conference language will be English with interpretation into German and French during the plenary sessions. A select number of workshops will be available in English, French and German language.

As the number of participants will be limited, we kindly ask you to appoint 1 representative of your organisation to attend the meeting and to ask this person to register via the below-stated link by 17 May 2018:

https://ec.europa.eu/eusurvey/runner/Alternative_Dispute_Resolution.

As contractor, Tipik Communication Agency has been appointed to organise the event and make logistical arrangements.

Participants will be contacted shortly after their registration to arrange their travel and accommodation. At this time, please do not make any travel or hotel arrangements.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact: ADR2018@Tipik.eu.

Best regards,

The Organisation team
